

Unlock Your Leadership Potential and Transform Your Organization

Exceptional Leader Program

The Exceptional Leader Program Builds on Your Natural Abilities to Become an Influential Leader

There are good leaders, and then there are exceptional leaders who use a set of personal and professional skills, knowledge, values, and traits that guide leadership performance. The Exceptional Leader Program will empower you to understand and utilize these competencies to become an exceptional, influential leader. The process nurtures your leadership habits through specific behaviors. Regardless of whether you are new to a leadership role or already have leadership experience, as an Exceptional Leader, you will be capable of transforming individual lives, teams, and organizations.

Exceptional leadership is the ability to foster and develop caring, trust and respect from others needed to inspire them.

Program Components

The Exceptional Leadership Program is structured around directed self-discovery about one's mindset, motivations, attitudes, biases, values, and other cognitive and behavioral attributes that collectively impact leadership performance. The program begins with completing a suite of assessments that elucidate these attributes. Results are reviewed to learn from and inform about one's leadership development. Then, a debrief is provided to the organization's CEO, followed by participant training.

Elements of Exceptional Leadership

- Self-Mastery - the ability to control yourself in all situations and consciously move forward toward goals with purpose, focus, and honorable self-discipline.
- Team Leadership – purposeful actions to align a group towards a common goal and ensure that each member has all the support they need to achieve results.
- Culture Collaboration - a deliberate process oriented to attitude and positive behavior that facilitates maximizing each person's strengths.
- Conflict Transformation - a comprehensive approach addressing personal, relational, structural, and cultural rubrics of conflict as a catalyst for changes.
- Key Person Acquisition - a retention strategy to improve overall employee satisfaction rates while encouraging employees to focus on company success.

"They have helped me truly grow my business... Assessments are right on and provide our clients with amazing insights and breakthroughs. VERY GRATEFUL!"

President

Most leaders who take an assessment say it is "accurate." Projectivity Solutions goes beyond accurate to give actionable insights that help leaders become more self-aware of what to focus on in their development.

Senior Director, HR

Great tools and insight for self and team awareness. Easy to use reports. Lots of resources to help people understand the tools and what they mean for them.

Manager, HR
